Program Info:

Do you want to inspire learning? Do you desire to empower lives through a career in teaching?

WHAT WILL I LEARN?

Students in the Early Learning and Development program are introduced to the expectations of a career in education working with children and families. Topics of study include early childhood education, special education, and a field experience.

CAREERS IN EDUCATION

Careers in education include teachers, teacher assistants, paraprofessionals, therapeutic staff support, childcare workers, and library assistants.
